

FIXING THE TIME OF ALL ELECTIONS

Republican City and County Central Committees Convened Yesterday.

DATES FOR CONVENTIONS AGREED UPON.

Hopes of Harmony Between the Old and New City Committees Candidates Present in Large Numbers—Miss Guidici Trio Set Upon.

The republican city central committee met at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon in the basement of the Life building, to the time for holding the two county conventions...

There was a fairly good attendance and the activity of some of the members, and others who are not members, during the hour before the meeting was called to order by Chairman Churchill, gave the gathering the appearance of a larger body than was actually there.

No sooner had the meeting been called to order than T. K. Sudborough moved that all who were not members of the committee be excluded from the room. It carried, and the score of members present, including a number of the members of the city central committee, shouldered their baggage and slid out as gracefully as possible.

An abundance of curiosity was manifested in the corridors as to what was being incubated on the other side of the heavy door. It wasn't long until that curiosity was satisfied, for the railroad contingent, by moving that the central committee name the delegates to the state convention, in order to avoid the necessity of holding a caucus on the 29th of this fall.

The word was passed around that it would hardly do to allow a few shrewd corporation managers to be elected delegates to a state convention that is to nominate a judge of the supreme court, and the committee as a whole sat down on chairs. Until, however, and Sudborough with a suddenness and vehemence that was not at all pleasing to that enterprising but misguided trader.

Date of State Convention.

The time for holding the convention to name the county ticket was fixed for October 14 at 2 o'clock p. m., at a place to be later selected by the committee, and it was decided to hold the county conventions on the 29th of this month.

Undoubtedly by their previous defeat, the triumvirate then sprung another pet notion of their own, which was that the primaries to select the delegates to the two county conventions should be held at one and the same time. They contended strongly for it, but once more the majority refused to be led into a trap, which had for its object the combination of the two county conventions...

Still the three-cornered delegation refused to give up. They tried to have each country delegation out from five to two, but for the third and last time it was demonstrated that it wasn't their day. The representation of the two counties to be the same as heretofore—nine from each ward in the city, fourteen from South Omaha, and 160 from each country precinct, a total of 170.

As soon as the meeting adjourned, the members were besieged by a score of anxious candidates, among them being E. Barrett, Sheriff Bennett, Andy Wiggins, Henry Knodel, L. M. McLeod, C. C. Stanley, Beecher Hieley, R. W. Gibson, W. H. Stebbins, and others. The committee was considerably disappointed by the turn affairs had taken, and they were all in a state of some chagrin under an exterior of indifference, and took their medicine with fairly good grace.

City Central Committee.

The new republican city central committee grasped time by the frizzes yesterday afternoon and fixed the day for holding the republican city district and ward conventions for October 7, at 3 p. m. The row between the old and new committees is as yet unsettled, neither having received a point from the positions previous to the meeting. The Smith of the new committee yesterday waited upon Chairman Richard Smith of the old committee, and with the instructions issued by the new committee at its last meeting, made a formal demand for the books, papers and records of the old committee. The demand was refused, but it was stated that a meeting of the old committee would probably be held about the middle of the coming week, when it would be decided what action would be taken. Some of the members of the new committee were a little better satisfied with the result of the meeting, and concluded that it would be as well to longer trust their independent friends.

To Move Northwest Trops.

St. Paul, Aug. 26.—The Minnesota banks are not preparing to move the crops with the speed desired by the elevators, so the latter have taken the matter into their own hands and will proceed, with the help of Chicago banks, to move the crop of Minnesota and Iowa to the westward. The latter have opened ten elevators at Lake City, Verden, Union, Ambey, Emore, Madella, Brewster, Sheldon, Sioux Falls and Montrose. They will open twenty-six more next week. They report plenty of funds to operate these elevators and pay in certified checks and currency.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE

First Gun of the Campaign Fired Amid Enthusiasm.

FRED J. SACKETT'S STIRRING SPEECH

Produces Figures of Proverbial Veracity that Picture Democratic Extravagance—Comparison to Republican Administration—Other Speeches.

There was a grand rally of republicans at Florence last night. It was the first demonstration of this campaign made by the party in this county and was attended by republicans from all over the county. The town hall was crowded, many being obliged to stand up.

Among the candidates present were George Bennett and R. W. Gibson. A whole raft of men are looking for Van Camp's shoes in the county commissioner's office. Among these are shown themselves last night were Jake Counsman, John Jenkins, Councilman McLeary and Charles Gilmore.

John M. Westbury and Prof. Rathburn announced themselves as candidates for the office of recorder of deeds. George Joffrey came in from the West Omaha precinct, and would like to be elected to the office of county judge. Of course Coroner Mike Maul was there and "gave it out cold" that he would like to serve the county as assessor.

Major J. S. Miller is casting longing eyes at a seat on the district court bench, and so are several other gentlemen. The meeting was called to order by Joseph Welch of Elkhorn, who, after making a few remarks, introduced Fred Sackett, county clerk, who spoke as follows:

My friends, I have to deliver a speech to you tonight. I would speak from a text. It is seldom that a political speaker is called upon to deliver a speech to you tonight. I would speak from a text. It is seldom that a political speaker is called upon to deliver a speech to you tonight.

L. Meyer & Co. Become Financially Entangled and Are Forced to Close Their Doors—New Levy Made by the City Council.

LINCOLN, Aug. 26.—[Special to THE BEE.]—Last night word was received at the police station that the two little daughters of E. Abbott, living at the corner of Eighth and Y streets, had been poisoned by eating toadstools. Mr. Abbott requested the sergeant to send a physician. After telephoning to a dozen or more of the physicians in the city Dr. Shoemaker was secured, all of the others declining to go on account of other engagements. As it was over an hour elapsed from the time the notice was received until the doctor arrived at the station. The patrol wagon was called out and the doctor and three reporters repaired to the scene with a haste which called everybody to the doorways in curiosity. The two children were suffering greatly and after working with them the greater part of the night the doctor felt confident that they would be saved.

SCANDINAVIAN CIRCLES

Henry Gudme, the Danish Traveler, Leaves No Clue to His Course.

HIS FRIENDS HAVE BECOME ALARMED

Doings of the Week Among the Progressive People Who Make Up the Scandanavian Population in Omaha—Points About People and Events.

Nothing has been heard of Mr. Henry Gudme, the young Danish traveler, since he left Council Bluffs about two months ago, and it is feared that he has met with some kind of accident. The young man traveled on foot, and intended to follow the Rock Island track to Chicago.

Mr. Gudme came to this country about a year ago, with the intention of studying the life and customs of the American people. He accepted the position of secretary with the Danish paper, Dansekoren, in Neenah, Wis., and was for some time employed as cashier and assistant secretary with Falders-Blad-Danubrog in Council Bluffs. He left this town in May for the purpose of studying rural life in the country. Soon after his desire for adventure led him to the dangerous task of walking through a foreign country without being a master of the American language, and his friends have received no news from him since he started on foot, and intended to follow the Rock Island track to Chicago.

Mr. Gudme came to this country about a year ago, with the intention of studying the life and customs of the American people. He accepted the position of secretary with the Danish paper, Dansekoren, in Neenah, Wis., and was for some time employed as cashier and assistant secretary with Falders-Blad-Danubrog in Council Bluffs. He left this town in May for the purpose of studying rural life in the country. Soon after his desire for adventure led him to the dangerous task of walking through a foreign country without being a master of the American language, and his friends have received no news from him since he started on foot, and intended to follow the Rock Island track to Chicago.
